

HOW TO SEE ALL 7 WORLD WONDERS

DURING A SINGLE CRUISE

Onboard the luxurious Serenade of the Seas you'll cruise along the coasts of Central and South America, then around the tip of Patagonia. Then, you'll journey through the Hawaiian islands and French Polynesia to New Zealand and Australia. From there, travel between Indonesian islands to the Philippines, China, Taiwan, Japan and more. Hug coasts of India and the Arabian Peninsula en route to the Mediterranean. Sail along the Strait of Gibraltar and through Europe and then cross the Atlantic to wrap things up in Miami. It's a truly global vacation, and you'll see all seven wonders of the world — and a few bonus ones — along the way.

On the Royal Caribbean Ultimate World Cruise, tackle your adventure vacation bucket list in one go.

— VISIT THE SEVEN WONDERS OF THE WORLD —

1

CHICHEN ITZA, MEXICO

The Mayans founded this sacred city of pyramids and temples in the fifth century. Many of the monuments are aligned with celestial events. Nearby, relax on the gorgeous beaches of Cancun and Tulum.

CHRIST THE REDEEMER, BRAZIL

This Art Deco statue is an icon of Brazil, and a symbol of peace. Pair a trip up to Cristo Redentor with sunbathing on Ipanema Beach.

2

IGUAZU FALLS, ARGENTINA/BRAZIL

BONUS WONDER

MACHU PICCHU, PERU

This ancient citadel is often referred to as the "Lost City of the Incas." Today, modern travelers can visit the ruins by train, bus or a multi-day hike with some llama friends. Then, explore the nearby city of Cusco and the natural beauty of the Sacred Valley of the Incas.

3

GREAT BARRIER REEF, AUSTRALIA

GREAT WALL OF CHINA, CHINA

The Great Wall was built in different stages and areas over several dynasties. Stroll along the 13,000 mile-long wall and then switch gears and head to Beijing, modern China's capital.

TAJ MAHAL, INDIA

The Taj Mahal is the ultimate monument to love. Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan commissioned the white-marble mausoleum to honor his late wife. You can easily reach it by train from the city of Delhi.

GREAT PYRAMID OF GIZA, EGYPT

PETRA, JORDAN

Ancient Nabateans carved the architecture of Petra out of rocky desert walls, and it's a representation of several different cultures that occupied Petra over the years. Pair your daytime trek through Petra with camping in the Wadi Rum desert.

TEMPLE OF ARTEMIS, TURKEY

7

COLOSSEUM, ITALY

Roman Emperor Vespasian built the Colosseum in 70 BC as a "gift to the Roman people." It stands tall in the heart of modern Rome, convenient to the Via Corso shopping street and picturesque Piazza Navona.
